

Benjamin Harris

Benjamin commenced ballet training at the age of 8 in his hometown of Bendigo, Victoria. In 2018 he commenced full time training in Melbourne, continuing there for two years before being accepted into Queensland Ballet pre-professional program for 2020. At Queensland Ballet he had the opportunity to work with many world-renowned teachers and choreographers on a number of new and established works which he found to be an invaluable experience. Benjamin joined VSB in 2022.

Highlights of his time with VSB so far include performing roles such as Can Can doll in The Magic Toyshop, Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, Young Dimitri in Anastasia, Kai in the Snow Queen, Prince Siegfried in Swan Lake, Sugar Plum Cavalier, The Nutcracker Prince, Basilio in Don Quixote and Gaston in Beauty & the Beast.

